

The show - The Power of Poop From the Outback to the Sea!

Includes:

- Live musical narration of The Things you can do with Blue Whale Poo, and another of Chris' beautiful books, A Bug Called Doug, demonstrating how important all of our creatures are (along with their poop), from the little bugs to the mightiest creature that ever lived!
- Chris will share a storyboard of the illustrations and insight into the inspiration for the story, as well as the creative process behind the new book.
- Some poopy whale poo facts!
- The audience will meet some funny sea creature puppets. WARNING - The show may be taken over by a giant inflatable blue whale!
- Singing and dancing to the song Blue Whale Poo!
- An art activity creative project where the audience joins Chris and one of his puppets drawing characters from the book.
