Chris Collin Barbara Hannan Adrian Hannan ©2013

Verse 1

There's a bug called Doug
Truth is at first sight
He's hideous and filthy
And he'll give you quite a fright
If first impressions
Ain't what they seem
Perhaps we are presumptuous
Perhaps we're mighty mean 'cause....

Chorus

Doug ain't the least bit stinky or slimy
Scary scaly smelly or grimy
He's a dapper individual
Of the creepy crawly kind
To squash him flat, with a big fat splat
Would be so unkind

Verse 2

There's a bug called Doug
Truth is if you dare
To look a little closer
He won't give you such a scare
A native cockroach
A bug you'll find
Who's perfectly unique
Just exactly as designed 'cause

Chorus

Doug ain't the least bit stinky or slimy
Scary scaly smelly or grimy
He's a dapper individual
Of the creepy crawly kind
To squash him flat with a big fat splat
Would be so unkind
